TAAS Hosts Visit of Dr OP Yadav, Member, ASRB, New Delhi

The Trust for Advancement of Agricultural Sciences (TAAS) recently hosted Dr O.P. Yadav, the newly appointed Member (Crop Sciences and Horticultural Sciences) of the Agricultural Scientists Recruitment Board (ASRB), New Delhi, during his visit to the TAAS office.

During the visit, Dr R.S. Paroda, Chairman of TAAS, warmly welcomed the eminent scientist and extended his heartiest congratulations to Dr Yadav on assuming this prestigious and vital national assignment at ASRB.

As a gesture of appreciation and shared commitment to agricultural advancement, Dr Paroda presented Dr Yadav with a copy of his book, Code Paroda. The book is a comprehensive memoir capturing Dr Paroda's inspiring life journey and his significant, decades-long contributions to shaping both national and global agriculture.

The leadership and team at TAAS wish Dr Yadav immense success in his new role at ASRB, where his vast expertise will undoubtedly guide the selection and mentorship of the next generation of agricultural scientists in crop and horticultural sciences.

Dr Bhag Mal, Secretary, TAAS and Dr JL Karihaloo were also present on this occasion.
